

Start Local, Stay Vocal

This song (next page) is part of the Justice Choir Songbook!

Download the resource at:

www.justicechoir.org

Our collection of 43 new and re-purposed songs for the issues of our time is accessible to anyone working for change. Made possible by Westminster Presbyterian Church of Minneapolis, the songs were selected from a national Call for Scores, and co-edited by Abbie Betinis, Ahmed Anzaldúa, and Tesfa Wondemagegnehu.

See each score in advance as we unveil them on our Twitter and Facebook pages!

@JusticeChoir

@JusticeChoirALL

How to Copy & Share with Creative Commons

Our songwriters have generously allowed us to distribute their copyrighted work with a Creative Commons license.*

Help us keep that trust and generosity going by reading this page carefully, sharing their work responsibly, and requesting their permission for other uses as required (their contact info is at the bottom of their song). Thank you.

You may copy and distribute any song from the Justice Choir Songbook for non-commercial use, free of charge, but you must:

1) Include the Songwriter's Name.

Always give them credit when you share their music.

Please name them in your programs, on your lyric sheets, in your videos, etc., and tag them (and Justice Choir too!) on your social media posts.

Extra credit: Send the songwriter a little note when you perform their music (their contact info is at the bottom of every page). They will be so happy!

2) Distribute the Music for Free.

You may not sell these songs; only give them away.

If you post your performances online, they must be free for anyone to access, with no paid ads on them.

Extra credit: Instead of forwarding this PDF, share the link (find it near the bottom of the song page) for them to download their own copy. That gives your friends the chance to donate to our songwriters if they wish to do so.

3) Keep the Copyright © and Creative Commons ⊕ Licenses on Sheet Music.

To easily meet this requirement, just print/copy the songbook pages in full.

All copies need to include the Copyright holder's name(s), and the Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-NoDerivatives 4.0 International License. (more info: www.creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc-nd/4.0)

Extra credit: Include this page when you print the music, so the next person will know how to share responsibly too.

PS: If you have any questions, please email justicechoir@gmail.com, or contact the songwriter directly.

* Creative Commons (CC) is a nonprofit organization devoted to expanding the range of creative works available for others to build upon and to share legally. They provide free, easy-to-use copyright licenses to make a simple and standardized way to give the public permission to share and use creative work on conditions of the creator's choice. More information: creativecommons.org

30. This Is What Democracy Looks Like

Words & Music by Elizabeth Alexander
St. Paul, MN | 2017

Rock Beat (♩ = 108)

D C D C

ONE: We see that there's a wrong to be right - ed.

D C D C

TWO: We know that we are strong - er when u - nit - ed.

D C D C

THREE: We ex - er - cise our right to as - sem - ble.

D C D

FOUR: That's when the proud and might - y start to trem - ble.

G7 F9 G7 F9

Just in case you're won - der-ing, [clap clap] just in case you're won - der-ing, [clap clap] just in case you're won - der-ing, [clap clap] Hey, hey, look this way!

G7 A7(#5)

D C D (shout it!)

SING 3 TIMES:

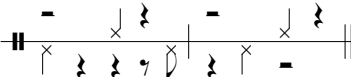

This is what de-moc - ra-cy looks like! SHOW ME WHAT DE-MOC - RA-CY LOOKS LIKE!

D G7

This is what de - moc - ra - cy looks like! Last time, end here

G7 Leader or All: (shout it!)

ONE! TWO! THREE! FOUR! Back to top:

Suggested
percussion groove:

Elizabeth writes: "Basing a song on my favorite protest chant was an irresistible songwriting challenge. I love it that very young children can shout out the numbers."